Holly Hill History Museum

Volume 6, Issue 4

October-December 2019

Early History of WESH TV

The Society will be presenting a program on the early history of WESH-TV. The NBC affiliated station signed on the air on June 11, 1956 in Holly Hill. Learn about its first studio here in Holly Hill from those who were there. Speakers include Deanie Cates Lowe and Olive Horning Pollak. The program will be held on October 15th, 6PM at Sica Hall, 1065 Daytona Avenue, located behind City Hall. Refreshments will be provided. You don't want to miss it!

Construction Continues

The Hollyland Park transformation into a Pickle Ball destination has made great progress. Residents stop by and take pictures of the work. Despite the appearance, the Museum is still open and parking is available at the same entrance. The reduced parking lot has forced the Society to move its events. The city has graciously offered the use of Sica Hall for our meetings and programs. Thank you to Magnolia House Antique Village for allowing us to also use their lot.

Local Favorite Gina's Restaurant Relocates

After opening in 2003 on 6th Street, Gina's Deli is now Simply Gina's. They take over a 4,550 sq. ft space at 841 Ridgewood that was built for a popular restaurant chain in 1979. Ridgewood was once restaurant row and is seeing a return to it. Check them out!

TRIVIA TIME: Do you know what restaurant chains used these buildings originally?

Answers on back.

Something Old is New Again

The southernmost historic lamp post at City Hall has been rebuilt after being destroyed by a vehicle. Thanks to the talented mason who was able to recreate it perfectly.

Drive Safely. Stay within the speed limit!

Annual Corporation Membership Meeting Held

The Annual Meeting was held in Sica Hall to elect officers and present reports of the corporation's financial report & operations. Thank you to those who provided the great refreshments. The three officers elected this year were Vice President Gil Adams, Treasurer Dean Wiggins & Director At Large, Martha D. Lunsford.
